INSTITUTION'S INNOVATION COUNCIL

CME ON “INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN HEALTHCARE”

Innovation and entrepreneurship in healthcare are driving transformative changes in how medical services are delivered, accessed, and managed. With advancements in technology, such as artificial intelligence, telemedicine, and digital health tools, there is a growing emphasis on creating cost-effective, patient-centered solutions. Healthcare entrepreneurship not only fosters novel ideas to tackle long-standing challenges like access and affordability but also plays a crucial role in improving outcomes and enhancing the overall quality of care.

With regard to aforementioned need The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) has organised a CME on “Innovation and Entrepreneurship in Healthcare” for Faculty, Post Graduate and Medical Undergraduates (2nd year), SVMCH & RC.

Activity
